

2: Describe the distributions of the fraction of available bikes in terms of temporal features and the possible derived features.